Dismissal/Suspension/Disciplinary Action

Termination of Probationary Employment

At any time prior to the expiration of the one-year probationary period, the Superintendent or designee may, at his/her discretion, dismiss a probationary classified employee from district employment. A probationary employee shall not be entitled to a hearing.

A. Disciplinary Action

The following disciplinary actions may be taken by the district against a permanent employee for the causes listed in Section B:

1. Dismissal - is removal from employment in the district.
2. Suspension - is temporary removal from employment in the district for a specified period of time.
3. Involuntary Reassignment - is a change of assignment whereby an employee is placed in the same position with different hours and/or at a different site.
4. Involuntary Demotion - is placement in a lower classification.

B. Cause

A permanent employee may have disciplinary action taken against him or her for any of the following causes.

1. Neglect of duty
2. Inefficiency
3. Incompetency
4. Violation of rules and regulations
5. Insubordination
6. Dishonesty
7. Consumption of alcoholic beverages that directly or indirectly have an adverse effect on the district
8. Use of tobacco products in violation of Board policy 3513.3
9. Immoral conduct
10. Illegal use of narcotics
11. Conviction of a sex offense as defined in Education Code 44010, conviction of narcotics offense as defined in 45123, or conviction as a sexual psychopath as defined in Education Code 45124

12. Repeated, unexcused tardiness
13. Repeated, unexcused failure to report to work as assigned
14. Excessive absence that is detrimental to the district
15. Inability to work harmoniously with others to such a degree that district functioning is disrupted
16. Failure to maintain such conditions and standards required by the district policies and job descriptions
17. Damage to public property
18. Disorderly conduct
19. Evident unfitness for service
20. Failure to maintain licenses or certificates required by law for the job

C. Dismissal Procedures for Permanent Employees

1. Written Notice - a permanent employee who is to have disciplinary action taken against him/her shall be informed in writing of the following:

a. Statement of Charges - A statement of the specific charges against the employee shall be written in ordinary and concise language of the specific acts and omissions on which the disciplinary action is based and shall include the cause and any rules and regulations that have been violated. No charge, however, shall be made which occurred prior to the employee's becoming permanent nor more than two years prior to the filing of this statement of charges.

b. Right to a Hearing - The employee may request a hearing in writing within five calendar days after service of the statement of charges. A card shall be provided to the employee, the signing of which shall constitute a demand for a hearing and denial of all charges. Failure to request a hearing within the five calendar days shall be deemed to be a waiver of the right to the hearing.

c. Access to Material - The employee may, upon request, have copies of the material upon which the charges are based.

2. Hearing

The hearing shall be held within a reasonable period of time but not less than five calendar days after the filing of a request for a hearing.

b. If the employee does not request a hearing by the set date, disciplinary action may be taken without a hearing.

c. The employee may be represented at the hearing by a representative of his or her choice.

d. The hearing shall be conducted before the Board of Trustees or before its designee.

(1) Hearing Before Board:

(a) The employee shall have the right to personally appear and testify, to call favorable witnesses, and to cross-examine witnesses.

(2) Hearing Before Designees

(a) A dismissal hearing may be delegated to a hearing officer.

(b) A suspension, involuntary reassignment or demotion hearing may be delegated to the Superintendent or his/her designee.

(c) The designee shall submit a written recommended decision to the Board which shall include proposed findings of fact and determination of issues. A copy of the recommended decision shall be sent to the employee.

(d) Prior to making a final decision, the Board shall afford the employee the opportunity to present arguments to it on the sufficiency of cause for disciplinary action. The Board shall not be required to conduct an evidentiary hearing.

Any modified decision shall include findings of fact and determination of issues by the Board.

3. Results of the Hearing - A written decision shall be sent to the employee within 10 working days of the Board's decision, including the findings of fact and determination of issues.
