

Diversity – Diversity is defined as differences in both visible and invisible identities including but not limited to: race, ethnicity, age, national origin, religion, physical or mental ability, economic status, gender, gender identity, and sexual orientation.